Dear Ken:

I am writing just to inform you that I saw [redacted]
[redacted] yesterday when we had a very pleasant luncheon. It was a most enjoyable visit, and the only thing that [redacted] and I both regretted was that you were not there, too.

At present we are starting, as you know, on the talks about the North Atlantic defense treaty, and I am sure that we shall hear scores of thousands of words!

With best wishes, believe me,

Sincerely,
